

William Paterson University
 Senate Graduate Program Council
 January 31, 2019
 VR 3015

Members in attendance: Nicholas Hirshon (co-chair), Michelle Hinkle (co-chair), Dorothy Feola, Pei Wen Ma, Nick Grammiccioni, Gary Steele
 Members participating via email: Kem Louie, Rajiv Kashyap
 Guests in attendance: Heejung An and Sandra Alon (College of Education)

Agenda	Discussion	Action
Call to order 12:35	The meeting was called to order at 12:35 PM
Adoption of Agenda	Agenda was adopted with changes	Changed the date and program change name
New Business: MEd in Teaching Children Mathematics	Guests Heejung An and Sandra Alon from the College of Education described the proposal for the revised program for the MEd in Teaching Mathematics to Children and answered questions from the council.	Motion to approve the revised program: MEd in Teaching Children Mathematics with the following change: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Indicated that the requested adjunct was, at this time, only needed once every two years
New proposed Course Time Schedule	Chairs received email from faculty member requesting discussion of new proposed course times for courses that meet once a week. Discussion regarding pros and cons of course schedule.	M. Hinkle will ask Senate chairs if new course outlines should be included in the final submission of the program change Motion: N. Grammiccioni Second: G. Steele Vote: 5 Yea; 0 No, 0 Abstain Council generated discussion that included pros and cons, as well as ideas for consideration include variations based on student population, buildings and available classrooms and/or campuses. if this topic is in the purview of the council.
Old Business	No old business
Adjournment	Meeting adjourned at 1:20 PM

Respectfully submitted by Michelle Hinkle