2024 Essential Guide

Start Saving with an FSA. Here's How.

An Unreimbursed Medical FSA is an account you set up for your anticipated eligible medical services and medical supply expenses not normally covered by your insurance. A Dependent Care FSA is a pre-tax benefit account used to pay eligible dependent care services, such as preschool, summer day camp, before or after-school programs, and child or adult daycare.

You can choose either – or both – an Unreimbursed Medical FSA and a Dependent Care FSA. With either FSA, you benefit from having less taxable income in each of your paychecks. This means more spendable pre-tax income to use toward your eligible medical and dependent care expenses.

Once you decide how much to contribute to your Unreimbursed Medical and /or Dependent Care FSA, the funds are deducted in equal amounts from your paychecks during the plan year. Before signing up for an FSA, review this reference guide to understand how FSAs can save you and your family a significant amount of tax money.

FSA eligibility

Unreimbursed Medical and Dependent Care FSAs are available to State employees through the State Employees Tax Savings Program, Tax$ave, a benefit program available under Section 125 of the Federal Internal Revenue Code.

An eligible employee is any employee of the State, a State college or university or other State agency who is eligible to participate in the State Health Benefits Program, except those part-time employees made eligible under P.L. 2003, c. 172.

Additional information about Tax$ave and the State Health Benefits Program is available from your employer or by contacting the New Jersey Division of Pensions & Benefits.

Your Unreimbursed Medical FSA may be used to reimburse eligible expenses incurred by yourself, your spouse, your qualifying child or adult child or your qualifying relative. You may use your Dependent Care FSA to receive reimbursement for eligible dependent care expenses for qualifying individuals under age 13, for services such as babysitting, after-school care and summer day camp; eligibility ends on the child's 13th birthday.

There is no age requirement for a qualifying child if they are physically and/or mentally incapable of self-care. An eligible child of divorced parents is treated as a dependent of both, so either or both parents can establish an Unreimbursed Medical FSA. Only the custodial parent of divorced or legally separated parents can be reimbursed using the Dependent Care FSA.

Civil union and domestic partnerships

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) recognizes a marriage of same-sex spouses for federal tax purposes, including the tax saving benefits available through Tax$ave. The IRS does not recognize New Jersey civil union partners or same-sex domestic partners as dependents for tax purposes in the same way it recognizes a spouse or the dependent children of an employee. As a result, a civil union partner or same-sex domestic partner must be able to qualify as a "tax dependent" of the employee for federal tax filing purposes – under Internal Revenue Code Section 152 – before an out-of-pocket medical expense incurred by the partner can be reimbursed under the Unreimbursed Medical FSA or Dependent Care FSA. The same applies to receiving the benefit of paying premiums on a pre-tax basis.

How does termination or leave affect my FSA?

Termination of FSA benefits typically occurs on the last day of the month in which employment is terminated unless the participant enrolls in COBRA for FSA. However, if you terminate employment or go on unpaid leave, your eligibility for either or both FSAs may change. While your Dependent Care FSA cannot be continued following termination or the start of unpaid leave, you may be able to change or continue your Unreimbursed Medical FSA election. To begin the process for this change or to continue coverage, contact Customer Service within 30 days of the event by calling 1-888-215-0025.

Specific guidelines about your employer's termination and leave policies can be obtained from your Plan Administrator. In addition, the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) may affect your rights to continue coverage while on leave. Please contact your Plan Administrator for further information:

FSA Fund Availability

“Use-It-Or-Lose-It” Rule

Be conservative in estimating your annual contribution since any money remaining in your accounts cannot be returned to you or carried forward to the next plan year. This is based on the Use-It-Or-Lose-It Rule for Section 125 Cafeteria Plans, including FSAs.

For Unreimbursed Medical FSA

The maximum annual amount of reimbursement for eligible health care expenses is available throughout your period of coverage, so you don’t have to wait for the cash to accumulate in your account.

For Dependent Care FSA

The funds available to you depend on the actual funds in your account. Unlike an Unreimbursed Medical FSA, the entire maximum annual amount is not available until after your payroll deductions are received.

Example: A participant’s bi-weekly Dependent Care FSA contribution is $400 and they pay their daycare provider $500 every two weeks. At the time the participant submits their claim, they have $400 in their account. The claim will be processed and reimburse the participant $400. When the participant’s next contribution is received, an additional $100 will be reimbursed to the participant, without them having to complete an additional claim form.

Annual Contribution Limits

For Unreimbursed Medical FSA per Employee:

Minimum annual deposit: $100
Maximum annual deposit: $2,500

For Dependent Care FSA per Household:

Minimum annual deposit: $250
The maximum contribution depends on your tax filing status:

Tax Filing Status	Maximum Annual Deposit
Married and filing separately	$2,500
Single and head of household	$5,000
Married and filing jointly	$5,000
You or your spouse earns less than $5,000 a year	Equal to the lower of the two incomes
Your spouse is a full-time student or incapable of self-care	$3,000 per year for one dependent $5,000 per year for two or more dependents

Use your FSA to save on hundreds of products and services for you and your family. Eligible expenses are defined by the IRS and your employer.

Unreimbursed Medical FSA

An Unreimbursed Medical FSA is used to pay for eligible medical expenses which aren't covered by your insurance or other plan. These expenses can be incurred by yourself, your spouse or a qualifying child or relative.

Typical FSA-Eligible Medical Expenses

- Dental services: Crowns/bridges, dental implants, dentures, teeth cleaning
- Vision services: Contact lenses, eye exams, glasses, prescription sunglasses
- Insurance-related items: Copays, deductibles, medical pre-existing conditions
- Lab exams/tests: Blood tests, CT scans, EKGs, MRIs
- Prescription medications
- Over-the-counter (OTC) medications: Allergy/sinus medications, aspirin, cough/cold/flu medicines
- Obstetric services: Lamaze, lactation consultant services
- Other medical treatments/procedures: Dialysis, acupuncture, hearing exams

FSA Savings Example*

By using an FSA to pay for anticipated expenses, you convert the money you save in taxes to additional spendable income. That's a potential annual savings of $491.25 in this example!

	With FSA	Without FSA
Annual Gross Income	$31,000.00	$31,000.00
FSA Deposit for Eligible Expenses	- 2,500.00	- 0.00
Taxable Gross Income	$28,500.00	$31,000.00
Federal, Social Security Taxes	- 5,600.25	- 6,091.50
Annual Net Income	$22,899.75	$24,908.50
Cost of Eligible Expenses	- 0.00	- 2,500.00
Spendable Income	$22,899.75	$22,408.50

*Based upon a 19.65% graduated tax rate (12% federal and 7.65% Social Security, married with zero allowances) calculated on a calendar year.

Dependent Care FSA

The Dependent Care FSA is a great way to pay for eligible dependent care expenses incurred while you work: after-school care, summer day camp, babysitting fees, daycare services, nursery school and preschool. Eligible dependents include:

- Children under 13
- A spouse/qualifying child who is physically or mentally unable to care for themselves
- An adult you can claim as a dependent on your tax return who is physically or mentally unable to take care of themselves

Typical FSA-Eligible Dependent Care Expenses

- Before and after school care
- Babysitting and nanny expenses. Can include paying an older sibling or other family member to watch a child under age 13 after school or any time the participant is working or traveling to/from work, but must obtain social security number from caregiver to document expense.
- Daycare, nursery school and preschool
- Summer day camp. For overnight camp, participant must acquire documentation from the camp breaking out the cost of day and night portions. The night portion is not eligible for FSA reimbursement.
- Care for your spouse or a relative who is physically or mentally incapable of self-care and lives in your home. Must have lived with you for half the year and is your dependent.

Access a full list of eligible dependent care expenses at HorizonBlue.com/dependentcare.

Typical FSA-Ineligible Expenses

For Medical Expense FSA:

- Insurance premiums
- Vision warranties and service contracts
- Cosmetic surgery not deemed medically necessary to alleviate, mitigate or prevent a medical condition

For Dependent Care FSA:

- Night portion of overnight camp
- Kindergarten tuition
- Lunches and food items
- Education programs
- Activity fees
- Pre-paid daycare or expenses paid in advance

Required Documentation

Over-the-Counter (OTC) Expenses

- The IRS requires that a merchant-generated receipt or statement be retained as supporting documentation for each item purchased. The receipt or statement must include the date of purchase, name of the OTC item and the amount paid (not handwritten).
- The item must be purchased in a reasonable quantity with the intent that it will be used within the current calendar year.
- OTC expenses that have both a cosmetic/general health use and a medical use will require a Letter of Medical Necessity (F9090) signed by your health care provider.

Vision Services

- If you have a vision benefit plan, the provider receipt must indicate the vision benefit or discount (not handwritten or an estimate).
- If the expense is covered by your insurance plan, include a copy of the Explanation of Benefits (EOB) from your vision benefit.

Dental Services

- The documentation submitted with your claim must indicate when the service was received, not billed.
- Balance forward or account payment statements will not be accepted as documentation.
- If the provider statement indicates an estimate of coverage submitted to the dental plan or payment pending, include a copy of the Explanation of Benefits (EOB) from your dental plan.

Orthodontia Services

Orthodontic treatment designed to treat a specific medical condition is reimbursable through your Unreimbursed Medical FSA if the proper documentation is provided. For fastest processing, submit a claim along with:

- A written statement, bill or invoice from the treating dentist/orthodontist showing the type and date the service was incurred, the name of the eligible individual receiving the service and the cost for the service
- A copy of the patient's contract with the dentist/orthodontist for the orthodontia treatment (only required if a participant requests reimbursement for the total program cost spread over a period of time)

Reimbursement of the full or initial payment amount may only occur during the plan year in which the braces are first installed. For reimbursement options available under your employer's plan, including care that extends beyond one or more plan years, refer to the information provided following your enrollment, or call Customer Service at 1-888-215-0025.

You must keep your documentation for a minimum of one year to submit upon request.

Appeal Process

If you have a request for a mid-plan year election change, FSA reimbursement claim or other similar request denied, in full or in part, you have the right to appeal the decision by sending a written request within 30 days of the denial for review to:

Ricardo Arce
Plan Administrator, Tax$ave
N.J. Division of Pensions & Benefits
P.O. Box 295
Trenton, NJ 08625-0295

Email: DPB.Tax\$ave@treas.nj.gov

Your appeal must include the date of the services, why you think your request should not have been denied and any additional documents, information or comments you think may have a bearing on your appeal.

Your appeal and supporting documentation will be reviewed upon receipt. You will be notified of the results within 30 business days from receipt of your appeal. In unusual cases, such as when appeals require additional documentation, the review may take longer than 30 business days. If your appeal is approved, additional processing time is required to modify your benefit elections.

NOTE: Appeals are approved only if the extenuating circumstances and supporting documentation are within your employer's, insurance provider's and the IRS' regulations governing the plan.

- You may continue using your Unreimbursed Medical FSA and/or Dependent Care FSA during the grace period, which is two and a half months after the end of your plan year (January 1, 2025 through March 15, 2025).
- Claims will be processed in the order in which they are received by Horizon MyWay. Your account(s) will be debited accordingly. All subsequent claims will be deducted from your new plan year account balance.

You can check account balances, view transactions and use our online planning tools at HorizonBlue.com.

Ways to use your card:

- You can use your debit card to pay your portion of eligible medical, dental, prescription and vision expenses.

A Note About Debit Cards

If you enrolled in the 2021 Tax$ave FSA, your debit card is set to expire. Your new debit card will be mailed to you in November or December 2023.

FSA Worksheet

This worksheet can help you plan your Horizon MyWay FSA so you can get the most of our your benefits while keeping your out-of-pocket costs low. Keep in mind that any unused funds at the end of the plan year or grace period will be returned to your employer, so it's important to estimate how much you should set aside for your FSA.

Election Change Events

At the beginning of the plan year, you elect a dollar amount to contribute to your account. This election can only be changed if you experience a life change that qualifies as an Election Change Event. This type of qualifying event may provide the opportunity to enroll, stop participation in or change the amount of your election outside of the open enrollment period.

After experiencing an Election Change Event, you have 30 days from the date of the event to contact your employer and change your election amount.

There are two restrictions to changes made as a result of an Election Change Event:

1. The change must correspond with the type of event (e.g., getting married increases the election amount; divorce decreases the amount).
2. The new dollar amount can't be less than the amount that you've already contributed or been reimbursed in the current plan year.

Events that allow you to change your Medical FSA election

Events that increase election

- Marriage
- Birth or adoption of child
- Child who gains dependent status

Events that decrease election

- Divorce
- Child no longer qualifies as a dependent
- Death of dependent

Events that increase or decrease election

- Your spouse or dependent starts or ends a job
- Your spouse or dependent has an increase or decrease in work hours
- You gain or lose eligibility for employer-sponsored health insurance or health flexible spending coverage
- You receive a court order requiring you or another person to provide health coverage for an eligible child
- You, your spouse or dependent gain or lose Medicare or Medicaid coverage
- You go on or return from FMLA leave as allowed by FMLA requirements and plan rules

Events that allow you to change your Dependent Care Election

Federal law requires that most group health plans, including Medical Flexible Spending Accounts (Unreimbursed Medical FSAs), give employees and their families the opportunity to continue their health care coverage when there is a qualifying event that would result in a loss of coverage under an employer's plan. Qualified beneficiaries can include the employee covered under the FSA, a covered employee's spouse and dependent children of the covered employee. Each qualified beneficiary who elects continuation coverage will have the same rights under the plan as other participants or beneficiaries covered under the plan. COBRA is only available for Unreimbursed Medical FSAs. The Tax$ave Plan is an "excepted" plan, and therefore offers only a limited COBRA option. One of the features of a limited COBRA option is that it is only offered for the remainder of the plan year and not the full 18 months of COBRA. Also, limited COBRA is only offered if the account is underspent. This occurs when the contributions paid to date are more than claims paid out. Be aware that an account is considered overspent (ineligible to participate in COBRA) if the contributions paid to date are less than the claims paid out.

COBRA Election Example

Arnold's FSA annual election is $1,000 for the current plan year. He breaks with employment in July. He has paid in $500 in payroll (pre-tax) contributions, but has received only $200 in reimbursement. This $300 balance ($500 contribution - $200 claims) is considered underspent and allows Arnold to participate in COBRA. If Arnold was overspent, he could not participate in COBRA.

Coverage will terminate on the date that employment ends. If Arnold doesn't sign up for COBRA, the $300 will be forfeited (unless he can submit $300 of claims incurred prior to termination).

Arnold chooses to participate in COBRA since he has no qualified expenses that he can submit against the $300 balance. He will complete and return the COBRA Election Form and send in the first COBRA payment. Once his first payment has been received, he is eligible to submit claims that were incurred after his break in employment. Arnold can continue to incur and submit claims until he has exhausted his original election for Unreimbursed Medical FSA benefit of $1,000.

Arnold's form W-2 will show $500 Section 125 Medical Expense Contributions.

NOTE: Dependent care election is not eligible for continuation coverage under COBRA.

Election for Continuation Coverage

The COBRA Notice and Election Form will be mailed to each eligible participant by the company administering the N.J. State Tax$ave Unreimbursed Medical FSA. You have 60 days from the date of receipt of the COBRA Notice or the last date of coverage, whichever is later, to elect to continue coverage by completing and submitting the COBRA Election Form.

First Payment for Continuation Coverage

If you elect continuation coverage, you do not have to send any payment for continuation coverage with the COBRA Election Form. However, you must make your first payment for continuation coverage within 45 days after the date of your election (this is the date the Election Notice is postmarked, if mailed). If you do not make your first payment for continuation coverage within that 45 days, you will lose all continuation coverage rights under the Plan. Your first payment must cover the cost of continuation coverage from the time your coverage under the Plan would have otherwise terminated up to the time you make the first payment. You are responsible for making sure that the amount of your first payment is enough to cover this entire period. You may contact Horizon MyWay to confirm the correct amount of your first payment. Instructions for sending your first payment for continuation coverage will be shown on your COBRA Notice and Election Form. All COBRA payments are made with after-tax dollars, which negates the tax savings advantage aspect of the FSA plan. COBRA is not a tax savings plan and is only intended to prevent participants from forfeiting contributions made prior to termination.

Periodic Payments for Continuation Coverage

After you make your first payment for continuation coverage, you will be required to pay for continuation coverage for each subsequent month of coverage. Under the Plan, these periodic payments for continuation coverage are due on the first day of each month. Instructions for sending your periodic payments for continuation coverage will be shown on your COBRA Notice and Election Form.

Grace Periods for Periodic Payments

Although periodic payments are due on the dates shown above, you will be given a grace period of 30 days to make each periodic payment. Your continuation coverage will be provided for each coverage period, as long as payment for that coverage period is made before the end of the grace period for that payment. If you pay a periodic payment later than its due date but during its grace period, your coverage under the Plan will be suspended as of the due date and then retroactively reinstated (going back to the due date) when the periodic payment is made. This means that any claim you submit for benefits while your coverage is suspended may be denied and may have to be resubmitted once your coverage is reinstated. If you fail to make a periodic payment before the end of the grace period for that payment, you will lose all rights to continuation coverage under the Plan.

Beyond Your Benefits

Deferred Compensation (457 Plan)

Participating in the Flexible Benefits Plan may affect your maximum annual contribution to the 457 plan. That is, Flexible Benefits Plan contributions reduce includible compensation* from which the maximum deferrable amount is computed. You should contact the Deferred Compensation vendor or the Tax Deferred Annuity (TDA) provider about the specific effect of the Flexible Benefits Plan.

* Includible compensation is the gross income shown on your W-2 form.

Notice of Administrator's Capacity

This notice advises FSA participants of the identity and relationship between your employer and its Contract Administrator, Horizon MyWay. We are not an insurance company. We have been authorized by your employer to provide administrative services for the FSA plans offered herein. We will process claims for reimbursement promptly. In the event there are delays in claims processing, you will have no greater rights in interest or other remedies against us than would otherwise be afforded to you by law.

Social Security

Social Security consists of two tax components: the FICA or OASDI component (the tax for old-age, survivors and disability insurance) and the Medicare component. A separate maximum wage to which the tax is assessed applies to both tax components. There is no maximum taxable annual wage for Medicare. The maximum taxable annual wage for FICA is subject to federal regulatory change. If your annual salary after salary reduction is below the maximum wage cap for FICA, you are reducing the amount of taxes you pay and your Social Security benefits may be reduced at retirement time.

However, the tax savings realized through the Flexible Benefits Plan generally outweigh the Social Security reduction. Call Customer Service at 1-888-215-0025 for more information or contact your tax advisor
